Dear Sir:

I just received your letter, telling me you were planing to come to camp with us. We are due to arrive March 31st in time for dinner, and will be quartered at The Hotel 708½ Davis St. Bellvieu Hotel. Mrs Williams.

I will give you the same salary I offered you last year, but we are not giving the $20.00 a week during training camp. We do pay for laundry, room and board and some spending change.

Let me know definitely whether you will be there, as I must let the lady at the hotel know how many to prepare for.

Very Truly Yours
